CAREFUL attention given to cutting the home papers spend money with you, but are careful to spend as little as possible with it, ain't you? Do you think a publisher can live on promises and pay his bills with the same material?

You think he can forever digest the fact that his paper is a good thing for the country, and not receive anything in return? He can't do it, can he?

The Summer Maiden.

Dear summer maid, I'm half afraid, Despite my store of reason, Again you'll take my heart to break, Just as you did last season.

For to be fair or dark of hair, I might myself entombed,

Years sitting gloomily on a lance, And I straightway am captured.

At other times, wed to thy rhyme, I well may laugh at Cupid,

Content that girls should shake their curls.

And pass me by as stupid.

But when the haze of warmer days Announces summer burning,

Put on soft sorts and fed thy thoughts.

Love will go with me, And while a swan you'll bring me won,

With heat light as a feather,

At your door I call give up all,

So we may be together.

How time will fly! You say good-by,

With some word lightly spoken;

You will be blitha and gay—

It's not your heart that's broken.

Here's the Truth.

When you want a newspaper favor you strike your "home paper," don't you?

If you want your town boomed and your property increased in value you expect for your home paper to do it for nothing, don't you?

You kick because your home paper hasn't as much reading material as a city paper, don't you?

And you preclude the home paper from thinking the town is a good place for it, by not giving it sufficient patronage, don't you?

You are mighty free about telling what a good thing for a town a home paper is, but are backward when it comes to helping that paper with the cash, ain't you?

You often sneak off to some other town to get your job work done, to save a few cents, don't you?

You are mighty anxious to have the home papers spend money with you, but are careful to spend as little as possible with it, ain't you?

Do you think a publisher can live on promises and pay his bills with the same material?

Dahlonega Signal.

DAHLONEGA, AUG. 3, 1894.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as second class matter.

See notice to road commissioners elsewhere.

Mrs. Giles Bell has been quite sick for several days.

Dahlonega was visited this week by a colored book agent.

The prospect of a large corn crop was never more promising.

Mr. Wm. Davis was married to Mrs. Lizzie Davis, a few days ago in this country.

Your attention is called to an article on the first page headed, "Here's the truth."

Several communications crowded out of this issue. Don't become discouraged but write again.

We are going to diggin'?" Frank McDonald, Will Howell & Co., found a 15 dwt. nugget on ten yard branch Wednesday.

The earlier symptoms of dyspepsia, heartburn and occasional headache, should not be neglected. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla to be cured.

During the heavy rain Tuesday James Huggins, whose residence is built over a branch, became alarmed at the rapid rise of the stream and he and his wife gathered up the little ones and went to higher ground. Jim belongs to no church and takes no chances in being washed down a branch into the creek.

Half Way post office has been reestablished in this county with Homer Kemp as post master. Mr. Kemp received his key last week but up to Wednesday the mail carrier had failed to stop at that office. We saw a letter from the postmaster general stating that the contractor had been notified to do so. What's the matter?

James Shelton, formerly of this county but now of Fannin, visited Dahlonega this week. Jim is a strong populist and says their candidate for the legislature has no opposition. He also states that he will support no more doctors for the senate nor house of representatives—having voted for Dr. N. F. Howard once, who was elected, and while he was gone Jim became sick and came near passing out beyond.

Adaline McBreath who was under bond charged with stealing corn from Wm. Davis recently, happened to a serious but not fatal accident, near Canoe Creek bridge Tuesday evening by being thrown from a mule. Her bondsman, desiring to give her up to the sheriff, was coming to town with the prisoner, who was on a mule with her little girl riding behind her. Just this side of the bridge at a very rocky place, the animal became frightened and threw both the woman and her child, cutting both of their faces and bruising them up considerably. They were brought on to town and placed in charge of the sheriff, who released the woman on bond Thursday and she was carried home.

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that while it purifies the blood and sends it coursing through the veins full of life and health, it also imparts new energy and vigor to every function of the body. "Hood's Sarsaparilla" has made a new person of me." It overcomes that tired feeling so common now.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, always reliable and beneficial.

Mr. A. S. Weichel, who had a gun and pistol stolen from him a short time ago, by a man calling himself Al. H. Knight, came to town Saturday after a 500 miles journey in search of the thief in various places in North Carolina but could hear nothing of him.

Rev. Mr. Ragsdale, of Covington, occupied the pulpit at the Dahlonega Baptist church last Sunday evening and preached an excellent sermon. The most of his time was occupied last week in holding meetings at Salem church a few miles north of Dahlonega.

We guess we can tell of a little transaction which took place between a countryman and city man. Mr. Anderson without our neighbor, the Nugget, saying we are trying to get up "strike" and "discord" between the town and the country. Any way we will try it and risk the consequences. Mr. John McGee, residing near two miles from town, has some hogs which come here on a visit and have been in the lock up several times. Last week they were impounded and when Mr. McGee's son came after them he had to pay 75 cents which he believed to be too high. So some time after the Marshal sent a bill up to the shop by a negro boy, where one of the young Mr. McGee's sons, to have two or three hogs killed in it. He performed the work and told the negro it was worth 75 cents. The negro said he had no money but would tell the Marshal. Soon afterwards the officer came to settle the bill, and remarked that they were d—n high holes. The work man replied that they were d—n high hogs. The Marshal paid the money and they separated.

MR. NESBUTT'S LETTER.

His Monthly Talk to the Farmers of the State of Georgia.

REVIEW OF THE CROPS.

NITROGEN.

Do plants get any of their nitrogen from the air? H. C. B., Hampden. While the air is composed largely of nitrogen, it is not available for plants, and the amount of nitrogen in the air that gets into plants is directly appropriated. No plants appropriate this free nitrogen except leguminous plants, and these plants accomplish it through nitrifying bacteria found on the roots, that are actual living organisms. An effort is now being made by scientific students to agree with the action of other plants with these organisms, and thus endeavor to communicate to them the power of extracting free nitrogen.

ROB FOR STOCK.

As a food for stock how does wheat compare with hay? L. L. T., Bartow County.

It will depend of course to some extent on the kind of hay. One pound of common hay in the quantity of nutritional content is equal to four or five pounds of wheat.

BOATING TRAILS.

How can I take care of those that are beginning to decay from knot holes? H. A. V., Cartersville.

To save trees from being damaged by decay in the center from knot holes on the outside an English paper recommends to empty out the water as far as practicable with a pump and then fill the holes with portland cement followed by a running consistency with water.

For example, two parts of cement and one part of sand will be sufficient to fill the knot hole, and the cement will harden quickly, which will be quite fresh.

When the holes are filled with the cement, allow them to set. Then smooth over the crown with the same material, rounded to throw off the water, just having it level with the bark and around the knot hole.

Spading will not do that, but rather accelerate the decay by allowing water to enter.

SPUDDERS.

Is not your suggestion the Southwicks as good motion sleep for this section? Will you kindly give me some of the reasons why you recommend this particular breed? D. A. B., Gainesville.

Mr. W. W. Chapman, experienced in sheep raising, thus gives some of the reasons why he prefers this breed:

Because they all sheep will produce more meat at less cost from a given area than any other breed. Sheep for you can keep 50 or more of them, and get only 50% of the larger breeds can be kept on the same food and area. They are big sheep in little room. They are sheep that produce the greatest weight where the best parts are, for many of you may not be aware of the fact that Southwicks are always one to two pounds heavier than the forerunners.

4. Temporary relief can be had by sowing the yards with land plant. This will hold the injurious emanations and keep the air in a healthy condition.

5. The soil can be disinfected by a thorough drenching with sulphate of copper diluted in water, about one pound of it, former to 100 gallons of the latter. The soil should be thoroughly drenched. Of these methods the simplest is the best—raising a crop upon the yard.

Japan Pines.

The Japan pines constitute a race as distinct from our native varieties as is the Le Conte from the Bartlett. The trees resemble somewhat our vigorous varieties of the Chickasaw type, but are more slender and upright. They are hardy, go far north as where our northern states open a new era in plum culture. Nurseries have fruitful many varieties of this type and found a number of decided value for both market and home use.

6. The lotus type has long been a favorite in the South, and is particularly hardy. It is more slender and upright, and has a slender, thin, and wiry stem. Both, Barkbank and Osoyo are favorite varieties of this type.

I prefer them because of their hardy, fresh, disease, and their ability to live in the extremes of heat and cold, for they go to be found all over the world. On their native down they have great extremes of climate to endure, from the heat of sun to the almost arctic cold of winter, and their fine, thick wool and close fleece is more than equal to any other breed, with which, being impervious to either wet or snow, they are able to put up with the greatest hardships, cold and wet, without any ill effects to their bodily health or to the quality of their wool. Thus not only do you by keeping a flock of Southwicks have a permanent and valuable woolen product, but you have one whose wool is of the finest and best quality and is not affected by the weather in the manner it affects other breeds.

I prefer them because they will thrive and live as well where other sheep would not, because they are more hardy and adapt themselves to almost any climate, and when once come to maturity as early as any other sheep in the world; because of their small size they produce just the joints that make the highest price in the market.

GRANGE FOR FARM ANNUALS.

The following valuable suggestion as to the benefits to be derived from share from one of our exchanges is worthy of consideration:

"The merciful man is merciful to his beast. Don't neglect, during the months of July and August, to provide some shade places to which your cattle, and sheep especially, can resort to during the heat of the day."

"All stock is better for such a place, but especially should the rammer and sheep be given a place."

The Texas station milo maize grows well and resists frost, but is not considered superior to other sorghums for forage.

Japan clover has been successfully grown at the North Carolina station and is strongly recommended as a renovator of worn soils.

It has been suggested that the cattle dipping system, tested and exhibited at the agricultural experiment station at College Station, Tex., be exhibited at the Dallas fair this fall.

There are a great many things in my stock which must be sold, at my price, if I can, at your price if I must.

I am not going to sell everything at and below cost. Many things are staple the year around, and will be sold, as always heretofore, at a reasonable living profit, but there are many things, new things, fresh things, beautiful things, which go out with the season, and I mean what I say when I offer them at and below Cost.

I will soon need the room for Fall stock, you need the goods now.

Because the sun shines hot and fierce,

The swallows chirp from out his mouth

With a weary look;

I know that she has gone away,

Each day a year;

Because the city lacks that grace
Which marks her more abiding place

When she is here.

Behold Your Candidate.

Now that Mr. Atkinson has been formally nominated as the standard bearer of the Georgia democracy, it may be well to examine closely and see what manner of man he is.

In order to be perfectly fair, and to avoid all appearance of unfairness or partisan prejudice, we shall only give the estimate which is placed upon him by his own party. How he is sized up by the men who are expected to support him, and by whose vote he is to be elected, if elected at all.

ATKINSON FOR FRAUDULENT BONDS.

In 1853, while speaker of the house of representatives, Hon. W. Y. Atkinson came down out of the speaker's chair, and made a speech in favor of the payment of $42,000 of bonds which the state had repunited.

ATKINSON FOR THE CORPORATIONS.

Mr. Atkinson dodged the vote for the important bill to enlarge the powers of the railroad commission. That bill was considered necessary by the railroad commission in order to enable them to protect the people against unjust discriminations and extortions of railroads.

ATKINSON AGAINST OLD SOLDIERS.

Mr. Atkinson has all of his speculates his love for the confederate veterans and of his efforts in their behalf. How does his record compare with these professions? He voted against the acceptance of the Soldiers' Home in my town.

The house journal for 1880, page 1003, shows that he did not vote on a bill to amend the acts relating to disabled confederate veterans.

ATKINSON AGAINST SCHOOLS.

Mr. Atkinson dodged the vote on the bill to establish a permanent school fund, and provide for the payment of the same into the treasury—House Record, 1890, page 194.

AGAINST THE FARMERS.

Mr. Atkinson is begging the farmers to stand by him. Why should he do so. What has he done for them?

In 1859 he voted against the bill for inspection of fertilizers, which was designed to protect the farmers, and was passed by the house of representatives, but was voided
by the Senate.

In 1859 Mr. Atkinson voted against a bill to allow farmers to plead failure of consideration for purchase of worthless fertilizers—House Record 1859, page 1030.

In 1859 he voted on a bill to declare all obligations to pay at any time any note or other evidence of indebtedness void, unless a plea be filed by the defendant and not sustained—House Record 1859, page 1052.

SPECIALTY.

During the coming general election three constitutional amendments will be submitted to the voters of the state. The first is to provide for two additional justices of the supreme court, which was voted upon at the last general election and lost. The second is an amendment to the state pension laws so as to include state pensioners who by reason of age and poverty, infirmity and poverty are unable to earn a living. The third is an amendment changing the time of meeting of the general assembly from the first Wednesday in October, the present time, to the fourth Wednesday in July.

DAHLONEGA, AUG. 10, 1894.

Chicago had a million dollar fire on the night of the first.

Kind enough to put down Lumpkin county for Hines and Twitty.

Hines and Watson continue to address the people at various places in the State.

All the old county officers of Hall were nominated last Saturday except tax receiver.

The democrats of White county met last week and adjourned without making any nominations.

Cok A. M. Murphy a leading citizen of Barnesville, Ga., bid the democratic party adieu last week.

The grand jury of Cobb county failed to endorse Judge Gober for the Supreme was expected by some.

If all voters who belong to the people's party in Lumpkin county are "ignorant anarchists" there are hundreds of them.

Work has been resumed at the American watch factory at Waltham, Mass., which gives employment to about 1,500 hands.

What is being fed to the hogs in Indiana for the first time in the history of the state. It is only worth 42 cents while corn is worth from 45 to 47.

Dr. Fenton can now be numbered with the populists. He presided over a meeting at Cartersville Saturday. What do the democrats say to this?

Unity don't seem to prevail among the Richmonden county democrats. There is an independent ticket in the field in the county and politicos are warning up.

We have always heard it said that good men ought to be put out for office. The people's party do this. They now have two ministers of the gospel in the field asking the support of the people.

The plotters of New York now suggest a republican for president and a democrat for vice president. They have gotten together and what they want is a president that will shoot the laborers down when they kick.

If any of you failed to be nominated for any office Tuesday, don't become disengaged and fret, because you will be called an office seeker, and it will be said that you only joined the people's party for that purpose.

A democrat remarked in Dahlonega Saturday that he would vote for a dog in preference to either a populist or republican. Such assertions as this does neither party no harm but is only driving a nail in the coffin of the democratic party.

Some of our democratic dailies are attempting to deceive the people now by making the impression that the secretary of the treasury is coining silver dollars to add to the circulation. A silver certificate will be destroyed for every dollar coined.

The Nugget calls the populists anarchists, but still wants them to come back into the democratic ranks. Dr. Fenton, who has always been called a wise legislator must now be numbered with the ignorant anarchists. We wish we had dards of such men as Dr. Fenton in our ranks.

The Chicago Times, with a circulation of over 100,000 has come squarely out as a populist. 17 others in Idaho, 120 in Nebraska, 117, in Kansas, and others. Thus you see, from a newspaper standpoint, how rapidly we are progressing. Recent elections show that the party has more than tickled its voters.

If the Democrats insist upon putting such men as Steve Clay, George Brown, George Gober, and others of like character in office, how can they expect the people to remain in the party? We are Democratic to the core, and always have been, but we will never be found guilty of voting for such men as above mentioned—Aeworth Post.

At the democratic primary in Hall county last Saturday in many precincts the voters were sworn to stick to the nominee. At Big Hickory an old man named Barret, a populist, desired to support one of the county officers and because he would not obligate himself to support the whole "ticket" he did not get to vote and a row got up, clubs, knives, and fence rails were brought into service and when the trouble ceased one man was found to be cut in the side and another one had fractured.

The state alliance convention convenes in Dublin August 15th.

The Alabama Election.

The state election of Alabama was held last Monday but we know but little more about the result than we did before. The Constitution says that the democrats have 61 out of the 100 members of the legislature and that Oates is elected Governor by 25,000, while the Journal figures it up at 40,000. Oates says he has a majority of only 20,000 and Kobb claims that he is elected by 18,000.

Tate Renominated.

Hon. F. C. Tate has been renominated for congress from this district by the democratic party. Mr. Tate has done very well a member. He voted for the free coinage of silver 16 to 1 and sent up about as many packages of seed and public documents as any democratic member.

But he did not suit a majority of the voters in selecting his post masters. He commenced laying his plans for a second term before he even took the office the first time. At his suggestion every editor in the district running a paper as large as a thumb paper branded "Democrat" was his choice to handle Uncle Sam's mail sacks. Where there was no newspaper man applying the man having the largest number of relatives old enough to vote, or could use the most liquor to his advantage got the office. Are we not correct? Dispute it and we will furnish proof on the subject.

People's Party Meeting.

DAHLONEGA, Ga., Aug. 7, '94.

The people's party of Lumpkin county met in mass meeting to nominate a candidate for senator and house of representatives, and other business.

Called to order by chairman Ducket. Suspended the regular order of business to listen to a speech by the Hon. J. N. Twitty, nominee of the people's party for Congress of the 9th Congressional District of Georgia. The crowd greatly outnumbered our expectations. It reminded us of an old time master before the war.

There was no brass band to attract the attention of the little children, but all present were voters who came to look after the interests of the people's party.

At 11 o'clock, when the hour of speaking arrived, every seat, window and standing space were occupied in the court room by populists and a light sprinkle of democrats, several republicans and a few colored men.

Hon. W. H. McFee, in a few well chosen remarks introduced the speaker.

Mr. Twitty commenced by saying that he had not come here to get up strife or to hurt the feelings of any democrat. Should he do so if they would call his attention to it he would beg their pardon if he was in the wrong. The object of his appearance was to discuss measures in a friendly manner, and not to make enemies.

Then received a report from the executive committee, who did not name a candidate for either house but left it to the meeting to nominate a candidate, which resulted in the election of V. A. Higgins for senator and C. M. Ferguson for house.

The following resolution was then adopted:

Resolved, That, as a mass meeting of the people's party of Lumpkin, return our thanks to Hon. J. N. Twitty for his able speech on this occasion and pledge him our support.

J. B. DEGERT, Chmn.

V. A. Higgins, Secy.

Modern Democracy.

Poor inconsistent, so-called of later years, modern democracy, in this inconsistency, with the treachery of the last twenty-six years, which thou didst promise, and ought to have performed thou didst not do; which thou didst not promise, and ought not to have done, then thou didst do—dost thou now in this supreme trying hour of an almost wrecked and ruined nation think that thou canst again in thine infamy fool the people? By what presumptuous plea dare you again face a betrayed consistency? Have you no remorse of conscience, or have you become bold and gay in your own infamy? Think you that the people having eyes see not—and ears hear that which pertains to their temporal welfare? Think you that they will travel a road forever which is leading them farther and farther from their goal of desires and destruction? Think you that they are in a condition to be further trifled with? Think you, from your past record, you have a particle of claim upon their future confidence? Know you not that you would not have dared to have trifled with our forefathers, as you are trifling with their descendants? Know you not if there had been a particle of virtue, or truth in the leaders of your party or your platform, that you ought to have abolished and corrected all the evils under which we are now laboring in two months' time. If you can do nothing but evil when you are entrusted with supreme power what can the people promise themselves by continuing you in power?

Have you ever taken a patriotic view of your blackened record—if you have not—for the sake of suffering humanity and a well nigh enslaved people I beseech you to do so and see the yawning abyss which awaits you in the future recollecting that "an honest confession is good for the soul"—Farmers' Outlook.

A Big Day For The People's Party of Lumpkin.

Last Tuesday was certainly a grand day for the populists of Lumpkin county. The tillers of the soil and laborers of other occupations visited Dahlonega, representing all portions of the county. They commenced to arrive at 8 o'clock and by 10 the streets were perfectly alive with people; not of the plug variety but of the horny hands of toil, who carried a badge of honor—worn in the palm of their hand. They were here to attend to business and to gain information by listening to the address of Hon. J. N. Twitty, nominee of the people's party for Congress of the 9th Congressional District of Georgia. The crowd greatly outnumbered our expectations. It reminded us of an old time master before the war.

There was no brass band to attract the attention of the little children, but all present were voters who came to look after the interests of the people's party.

Should he do so if they would call his attention to it he would beg their pardon if he was in the wrong. The object of his appearance was to discuss measures in a friendly manner, and not to make enemies.

Then received a report from the executive committee, who did not name a candidate for either house but left it to the meeting to nominate a candidate, which resulted in the election of V. A. Higgins for senator and C. M. Ferguson for house.

The following resolution was then adopted:

Resolved, That, as a mass meeting of the people's party of Lumpkin, return our thanks to Hon. J. N. Twitty for his able speech on this occasion and pledge him our support.

Modern Democracy.

Poor inconsistent, so-called of later years, modern democracy, in this inconsistency, with the treachery of the last twenty-six years, which thou didst promise, and ought to have performed thou didst not do; which thou didst not promise, and ought not to have done, then thou didst do—dost thou now in this supreme trying hour of an almost wrecked and ruined nation think that thou canst again in thine infamy fool the people? By what presumptuous plea dare you again face a betrayed consistency? Have you no remorse of conscience, or have you become bold and gay in your own infamy? Think you that the people having eyes see not—and ears hear that which pertains to their temporal welfare? Think you that they will travel a road forever which is leading them farther and farther from their goal of desires and destruction? Think you that they are in a condition to be further trifled with? Think you, from your past record, you have a particle of claim upon their future confidence? Know you not that you would not have dared to have trifled with our forefathers, as you are trifling with their descendants? Know you not if there had been a particle of virtue, or truth in the leaders of your party or your platform, that you ought to have abolished and corrected all the evils under which we are now laboring in two months' time. If you can do nothing but evil when you are entrusted with supreme power what can the people promise themselves by continuing you in power?

Have you ever taken a patriotic view of your blackened record—if you have not—for the sake of suffering humanity and a well nigh enslaved people I beseech you to do so and see the yawning abyss which awaits you in the future recollecting that "an honest confession is good for the soul"—Farmers' Outlook.

powerless to do anything for the colored race in that direction. He said the law was very clear. That every upright and intelligent citizen was entitled to sit on the jury even if he was as black as the ace of spades. That the negroes were not alone in this matter, that some of the best republicans of the county were not only removed from the grand jury box but were left out entirely—that they were not苞orians. He said that the democratic judges appointed the jury commissioners who at the suggestion of certain county officers and that they could not help themselves much else render any service to the colored race.

The explanation of Judge Brittain seemed to be very satisfactory to the colored man, for he remarked after the meeting, that he was not the only one fooled, while he had voted for the negroes so as to be put in the jury box Mr. Grizzel had supported them so to have the revenue law repealed and both the negro and white man had been deceived.

Get Together.

The reformers should get together and vote together. There are many democrats over Georgia who are died in the wool silver men and who believe that the country should have sufficient volume of money to do the business of the country and restore prosperity.

Many of this class are still listening to the siren tongue of such politicians as Livingston and Maddox. These congressmen plead for free silver before the people and tell them that they voted for it, but where does their party stand? Can they do anything for the people when a majority of the party to which they belong oppose silver? You can go forward and elect them until doom's day, and if they are controlled by a gold-bug party they will never be able to do the people's cause any good.

If these men were honest in their advocacy of silver, why not quit the goldbug party stand by the party that favors free silver and more money.

The men who are suffering for these reforms can't longer afford to follow these men into the camp of the enemy. If they want to get free silver and more trade and prosperity would once more reign over this lovely land of ours.

Rev. Mat. Grizzel then arose, stating that he only wished to say a few words, but he became so enthused that he held the floor for near three fourths of an hour. He said he was a republican, wasn't very well posted; became disatisfied with the internal revenue law and voted for Mr. Cleveland the first time, with the hopes of making a change, but he had been deceived as the tax on liquor had been increased by the democrats.

Now there is no excuse for a republican voting for Mr. Cleveland. We understand that Mr. Grizzel is expecting to run for tax receiver and he was just baiting his hook to catch both minnows and suckers in the January election.

Mr. Grizzel was then chastised by the tongue of Rev. W. G. Spencer for his ignorance in casting his vote for Mr. Cleveland.

At this juncture Frank Lowery, who occupied a seat with four other dandies in the east corner of the room, sprang into the center of the assembly as if moved by some magic power, and in a loud and clear oratorical tone, with a lock of hair in one hand and his old hat in the other, lifted far above his head, standing on the very tips of his toes, said he was a republican but had voted for the democratic ticket, and had come to him for information and relief. He said he wanted to know why Mr. "nigger" was not in the jury box. Even the republican candidates on the eve of the election had told him that this master would be looked into and that the darkey should have his rights, but after they were elected nothing was ever said or done. He said the "nigger" was never seen in court room unless he was in the clutches of the sheriff charged with some misdemeanor. They had to pay their taxes and help keep up the roads, and when overseers were appointed they would go to the far end of the district to get a white man to boss one "nigger" and when he got there he could not read and the "nigger" would have to call the roll. Why is it, gentleman and fellow citizens?

Judge Brittain then arose and was not long in explaining the whole jury system. He told the retired speaker that they were

Republican Meeting.

Judge Brittain, chairman of the executive committee, called the meeting together. H. F. Anderson was elected chairman and D. Ingleson secretary.

On motion of H. D. Ingleson the chairman appointed H. D. Ingleson, G. W. Spencer and M. S. Grizzel a committee to get up resolutions for the meeting. While the committee was out Judge Brittain made a speech to the convention.

J. C. Brittain and H. D. Ingleson were elected delegates to the state convention at Atlanta August 29th, 1894, and W. G. Spencer and M. S. Grizzel alternates.

The committee submitted the following resolutions which were read and adopted:

Resolved, 1. The republicans of Lumpkin county in making their adherence to the principles of the National republican party of the United States a condition of progress, safety and happiness.

2. That we declare our adherence to the principles of free silver, protection and stimulating agriculture and protecting American labor against foreign competition and monopoly.

3. That we favor such an increase in the value of the dollar as will meet the demands of the war and the present financial stringency.

4. We favor the coinage of silver and gold at a ratio of 16 to 1, and the use of silver and gold in the same proportion as the metallic silver and gold.

5. That we favor the imprisonment of minor with or graduated criminals and recommend a reformatory prison for the reformation of minor criminals.

6. That we favor the laws of this state that competent and intelligent men can be thrown out of office for personal or political purposes.

7. That we go with pride to the great and glorious history of our country for the last quarter of a century under a republican administration.

The following is the executive committee of the county:

The Negro and the Democrats.

"The negro's best and truest friends are the democrats of the South. They have been the true friends in the South and the negro must look for any personal or political favors in the future. The populist promises of to-day are like the '40-acre and a mule' promises of the republicans a few years ago. They are only made to those who have no right to them. The negro is not to be trusted for personal and political favors."

The above is from the Cherokee Advance. The democrats get very honest and friendly towards the negro when they want an office. They will agree to sift the jury box and sure enough they do and the negro and many poor white men are cast off to one side in a pile together.

They will promise the day just before the election $20 for his services and after the race is over he gets nothing but a pair of shoes and a stick or two of candy. And when a big democratic state convention is held the negro is not in it.

A place where the negro and poor white men equals rights—on the poor roads.

An exchange says a step from Jefferson to Cleveland is the biggest step downstairs any party ever took.

Steve Clay and Jim Brown.

Notwithstanding seven new citizens of Dahlonega county stated on oath that Steve Clay and George Brown told them at Morgan court that if they would be at the primary for Governor, their cases in court would be lighter with them. Clay was elected to preside over the recent state democratic convention and made chairman of the executive committee of Georgia.

This is not all. These two men went to Acworth and locked up the editor (a democrat) in a room and tried to make him retract what he had said in allusion to this political scheme, but the editor thought little and puny, would not and they had to retreat their steps homeward feeling sad and very much disappointed.

Frank Harris, of Chattanooga, is here on a visit.

New students have already commenced arriving.

Uncle Charlie Besser is now off on a trip to Atlanta.

Mrs. Redmond, of Shoal Creek district had two cows killed by lightning last Friday.

Judge Brittain says that it is a long time until the election, but if he is alive he intends to make the race for ordinary next time.

The colored baptist association convenes at this place Friday week. The people of that race expect a large attendance and a good time.

The board of trustees elected Miss Jessie Forchard, of Montezuma, Ga., teacher of the music and art department of the N. G. A. College, last Monday.

Miss Lila Cain, who is teaching one of the public schools in Dahlonega has 72 pupils, classified as follows: Arithmetic 40, geography 24, grammar 19, reading 13, Latin 7, history 5.

There are two petitions in circulation concerning the mail via Half Way. One asks that the time be extended to eight hours to make the trip to and from Gainesville, and the signature of the other desire the present schedule—5 1/2 hours, to remain in force.

Mr. W. B. Fry is now general superintendent of the various mills of the Hand Gold Mining Co. The company certainly made a wise selection for this gentleman is no new hand at the business and will be of great benefit to his employers.

Mrs. F. M. Blackmer, formerly of this place but now of Gainesville, will move back to Dahlonega in a few days and will occupy the dwelling next to the Kilgo house. Mrs. Blackmer returns to Dahlonega for the purpose of educating her children.

Rev. M. S. Grizzel's resolution to use every effort for the establishment of a republican paper at Dahlonega was endorsed by the convention Saturday. There will be no trouble of succeeding if the 300 republicans of the county will dip their hands down into their pockets and bring out the money.

The commissioners have been engaged this week revising the jury box of Lumpkin county. There will be a big increase in the number of jurors this time. As Joe Parker used to say, the commissioners have been "studying wisdom" since the last revision and have become more separated with the "intelligence" of the people of the county.

Bill Woody was in town Saturday lecturing for sheriff. When asked how he stood politically, replied that he was a democrat and his father was a republican. We reckon Bill intends to try to ride off without a bridle. It's going to be mighty hard for any man riding a political animal to reach the proper gate next few elections without some kind of a guide.

Marshal Harrison destroyed an illicit distillery in Yahoolea district Saturday near the residence of Jim Satterfield. It was comparatively a new operation and the tools that were used in the manufacture of the stills, etc., were found in the lot of Jim's house. It was not in active operation at the time, and the proprietor was absent, and the Marshal only got the cap and the worm. The letters "W. P." were found on each one of the tools. Supposed to belong to some wise prophet.

Mrs. James B. Wirt of Atlanta, is now the guest of her mother at this place, Mrs. Wirt Boyd.

The recent heavy rains did much damage to the public roads rendering them impassable at many places.

Rev. J. E. Blackmer preached to a large and attentive congregation at the Baptist church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Brittain, who has been in Gainesville for several months under treatment of some of the physicians of that city, returned home last week greatly improved in health.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. J. M. Galbreath, which occurred last Saturday at Pleasant Retreat, Ga. She was a sister of Mrs. J. F. Moore and Col. R. H. Baker of Dahlonega.

We furnish our readers this week some articles on the first page clipped from democratic papers giving a kind of a biographical sketch of Mr. Atkinson, their candidate for Governor. We wish it distinctly understood that we are not partial.

We began to think Saturday that Marshal Anderson and Fata Daniels were going to have a pugilistic battle, but it was postponed for the time being. Each one claimed the championship and were going out of town to see which was entitled to the badge.

It can no longer be said that the merchants are the only class of people making big profits on their sales. It is stated that a certain farmer of this county has come to sell at 60 cents per bushel, or one dollar on time with good security to be paid the first of November. This is not a very handsome profit.

A hog was killed by lightning last Friday, in the pen belonging to Mr. John Sargent residing in the county. Not a sign of the lightning could be seen on the pen or any where else. Those in the house at the report heard the hog squeal immediately afterwards and it was dead when they reached the place. Every one in the house were shocked more or less.

The republicans last Saturday appointed some of the populists on their executive committee. Among them was Uncle Tom Stringer of Shoal Creek district. He says he has always been a republican, voted the democratic ticket several times but now bids both farewell and joins the populist. He was on hand at the convention Tuesday and cast his first vote with the new party and says he is going to stick to it like a leach.

The rains have been unusually heavy since day goes set in and miners have had abundance of water to run their operations.

The reunion at Dawsonville was attended by hundreds of people yesterday. We will give the proceedings next week.

We do not follow the example of our democratic contemporaries and refuse to publish the proceedings of any political convention, but we print them all.

The Sunday School convention at Dahlonega camp ground was largely attended last Saturday, notwithstanding the threatening rains. Much interest was felt and all who attended were very much pleased with the proceedings.

If the grand jury finds a true bill against you the lawyer is allowed five or ten dollars to enter a plea of guilty for you. If you want to make a bond he has so arranged it that he cannot sign it. Now let the farmer be sent to the legislature this time and pass some law in his interest.

day looking pale and heavy. He now resides in Martin's Ford district—belonging to the anarchist crowd as the Nugget calls it—and says they have a populist club in his district and they will poll five to one in that district.

Nearly all our Dahlonega lawyers attended Dawson Superior Court this week. Col. Baker couldn't go. He had to remain at home and oversee the working of the road between this place and the election and see if the fees are reduced or wait for the democrats to give us free silver and the good times that were promised us at the last election.

OLD TIME.

Liquor on Election Days.

Nearly every election in Lumpkin county there is blood shed on account of men getting drunk on liquor furnished them by candidates and candidates friends. Candidates do this in open violation of the law. They do it to get the voters of strong drink in such a condition as to remove their senses so that they may be led up to the polls by some leader like sheep to the slaughter and voted. Then they are turned loose—no further use for them—and allowed to go their way and fight and kill each other if they choose.

Candidates who love their friends, neighbors and countrymen should publish to the world in advance of the election that they will not use any liquor themselves nor pay for any liquor furnished by any one else for them. This would put a stop to it and men could go home after voting to their wives and children and not be drunk and caroused up like they had been in a cyclone.

WHO WILL BE THE FIRST CANDIDATE TO PUBLISH THAT HE WILL NOT USE LIQUOR DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ON ELECTION DAY? DON'T ALL SPEAK AT ONCE.

NEW RESTAURANT.

Just opened out by Miss Georgia Barnes opposite Dock House building on Park Spring street, where you can get a Square Meal for 20 cents. Cakes 15 cents per pound. Light Bread 5 cents, and lunches at various prices. Aug. 2, 41.

The increase in the number of persons in the jury box of this county is about two hundred.

Gordon H. H. D. Garley and Dr. Whelchel of Dahlonega took in a few of the sights of Gainesville this week.

Dr. Whelchel has been appointed democratic instructor for this country. Doe's a good one and will be active during the campaign.

Sherman's Diamonds.

Hon. T. E. Watson Thompson, Ga. In a recent issue of your valuable paper you said something about congress remitting or paying back some tariff tax on some jewels or diamonds to Miss Minnie Sherman.What was the amount, the date, and whose daughter is she?Please give us the particulars of the matter more fully in your next issue and greatly oblige us.

J. W. JONES.

Miss Minnie Sherman is a daughter of the late Gen. W. T. Sherman.The Khedive of Egypt desired to present General Sherman a magnificient lot of diamonds valued at more than $100,000.As the General was holding chief command of the United States army at the time, the gift could not be made directly to him. The constitution forbids an official of this country accepting gifts from foreign rulers, governments, etc.But, all the same, General Sherman determined to have those diamonds. Therefore the Egyptian ruler presented them, not to the general himself, but to the general's daughter, Minnie.Which was all very lovely and highly characteristic of the Sherman family.When the diamonds reached the New York custom house they were valued at the moderate sum of $60,- 000; and, as the import duty on diamonds is only one-fourth as high as it is on blankets, woolen clothes, axes, hoes, etc., the government only assessed a tax of $6,000 against these royal gems when it would have been $24,000 on blankets, axes, etc., of the poor man.But General Sherman refused to pay the bill. He had a brother named John, who, by the grace of gold and pluck, was a member of the United States senate.Therefore it occurred to the Sherman brother that it would be a neat thing to have the entire tariff system repealed and a deposit to the corporate limits of Dahlonega—in this particular case. Both the Sherman brothers were rampant pro-tectionists, as long as other people paid the import taxes. But when it came to making a Sherman law tariff assessments, the horse beganto change color with startling rapidity. It suddenly occurred to them that "free trade" in those diamonds, at least, would be a most pleasant doctrine.So they got old Senator Morrill of Vermont, to introduce a resolution in the senate suspending the tariff system in favor of Minnie Sherman, and making her a gift of $6,000 taxes on these diamonds.This tax had already accrued, was due, and belonged to the federal treasury. Hence the Shermans not only obtained a gift of magnificent jewels, but got $6,000 slice out of the public funds also.Morrill's resolution passed unanimously.To show that the diamonds were not the exclusive property of Minnie Sherman, but were treated by the family as General Sherman's property, I have only to mention the fact (reported by the newspapers) that after General Sherman's death these diamonds were divided among the children.Had the jewels been Minnie Sherman's property, solely, there would have been no division after General Sherman's death.That suspension of tariff system in favor of Minnie Sherman occurred in 1876.In 1888 a plan was made to congress to suspend the tariff as to jute bagging and binding twine, which the American trade was running up to ruinous figures. From Texas to the railroads came the cry of distress and the prayer for relief.Did congress suspend the tariff taxes on bagging and twine?Not much. Congress said it could not be done. The proposition was denounced as "wild, impractical and unconstitutional."—The Daily Press.How the Taxpayers Are Fleeced by the "Men Who Control."Question. Colonel Hardeman, we having a report of the Third National Bank of Columbus, which is one of the state depositories and a deposit of $40,- 000; we wish to know why that was put there in that bank?Answer. It is due to Mr. Jordan in my office upon his request.Question. Likewise on the 20th of August we had $17,000.Answer. My impression is that I gave that to him in person (Mr. Jordan).

Question. And then we had $35,

Dahlonega Signal.

DAHLONEGA, SEPT. 21, 1894.

Tear loose from your shackles and vote the populist ticket.

How do you expect to defeat democracy and vote that ticket?

The success of populism in Georgia is getting brighter every day.

The first snow fell in Montana last Friday night four inches deep.

The number of negroes in Oklahoma Territory is estimated at 66,000.

A daily populist paper will be started in Birmingham, Ala., in a few days.

The grand jury of Habersham county has recommended Howard Thompson to be re-elected solicitor General.

In a few weeks candidates will drop out like chinquapins from an open bush when struck with a rock.

The heated contest in Kentucky between Breckinridge and Owens has come to a close and Breckinridge got it.

What has the new tariff bill done for us? Reduced the price of fire crackers and increased sugar 1/4 cent more on the pound.

The post office department, because of its insufficiency of the appropriation, is obliged to stop advertising undelivered letters, which cost $20,000 a year.

The chickens come home to roost, and so will many democratic candidates after the 3rd day of next month, when they will remain for quite a while.

Judge Hines is a pure man and many good democrats will support him. They can't afford to vote for Atkinson, whose political record is as black as the ace of spades.

Joe English is sentenced to be hung at Clarkesville on the 9th of November, and his brother will go to the chain gang for life. A motion for a new trial has been made.

Repel me, the democrats have told you that your party defrauded the government out of $30,000,000 for pensions. Now are you going to turn right round in the face of this and help to put them in office?

There are three democrats in the field for legislators in Franklin county and one republican. J. D. McDaniel is the nominee of the republican party, and he will doubtless lay his democratic brethren in the shade.

Judge Hines, who has been challenged by Mr. Atkinson for a joint debate, refuse to meet him on account of the executive committee of Atkinson's party refusing to recommend a division of election managers, as well as the late date of the induction.

Many of the democrats in Dr. Pelton's district say they won't vote at all. They desire to vote against this good man. One of our leading merchants who is a strong democrat says he would vote for the Doctor sure if he was in his district.

The Cleveland Progress says White county will go democratic. The editor will have to guess better than he did in the January election. He said before the election only democratic county officers would be elected, when the populist defeated every one of them and the editor threw in.

Mr. Burt asks if the populist candidate for the house is qualified and has he expressed his views upon state legislation. Yes he is qualified and has expressed himself upon very important matters. He says he is in favor of education in all its branches and such other legislation as the people may desire. He says, if elected he will be a servant of the people.

The editor of the Georgia Cracker stood on his head last week and demanded of us the author who furnished us with the information that Atkinson promised the boys at Cherokee if they would vote for him he would pardon them out if they got into trouble. Let Mr. Atkinson deny it, then we will furnish proof. We pay no attention to any of his one-horse editors.

The Atlanta Constitution of June 3, says: "The following open charge was made in a public address by ex-Judge J. H. Martin of Chattochoochee circuit, a week ago, and no denial has yet been made. 'Mr. Atkinson voted against me for the judgeship, but gentlemen, upon my oath as a gentleman, I had the refusal of his vote. He offered to trade with me and I spurned the trade and threw it back into his face. Gentlemen, if you want a trading politician for governor Atkinson is your man.'

Atkinson's Platform.

"I had rather the Asiatic cholera or small pox would sweep this country than for the third party to get into power!"—Atkinson in his Jonesboro speech.

"I can beat Gen. Evans with the old soldiers and Methodist church thrown in.—Atkinson.

"Vote for me boys, and if you get into trouble, I will pardon you out—Atkinson while being introduced to some young men in Cherokee county by Geo. Brown.

The Speaking Saturday Night.

Mr. W. J. Burt filled his appointment at the court house Saturday evening according to announcement.

The time was consumed in a nice little talk about legislative matters—what he proposed to do if he is elected to the house, and explained several laws which he had heretofore worked for, which seemed to be very satisfactory to most all present except those that bitterly opposed him. The speaker soon convinced his hearers that he was bitterly opposed to lawyers representing us in the legislature. In referring to them he said:

"Now if it were possible for doctors to go to the legislature and make the people sick they would be candidates much oftener than they are, and if one got there he would slip in a few laws that would cause us to have bilious fever and dyspepsia."

The next election another Doctor would bob up as a candidate and if elected would be in something that would give us kidney troubles, nervous prostration and a host of other troubles which would be on us if we kept on sending them for 25 years. Of course the doctors do the practice and would grow rich through their own efforts at legislation. Now there would be just as much sense in the people sending Doctors to legislate for us, under this condition, as there is in sending lawyers to legislate for them when their meat and bread depends upon their big business growing out of the laws they help to enact. They have largely shaped and manipulated the laws now on our statute books and every body knows they have had an eye on their business when they were doing so."

At the close of Mr. Burt's remarks Mr. W. R. Crisson took the stand. He was for another candidate and endeavored to point out to Mr. Burt the danger of three democrats running against one populist, but it didn't seem to alarm or discourage the speaker just taking his seat for he says he is in the race until the close of the polls on the 3rd day of next month. Mr. Crisson, after comparing the two or three little wild animals, withdrew amidst much laughter. These comparisons will affect nothing. However, and the democrats remain in the same old rut.

Col. Charters was then called for, who was soon upon his feet. His name had been mentioned several times by the first speaker, and he was glad of the opportunity of defending himself. He called a witness to the stand for the purpose of proving something that Mr. Burt had said to him during the trial. Mr. Burt was not sworn but "answering in his place." This part of the proceeding resembled a trial of the colonel's wife.

At 11 o'clock Col. Charters, who, probably thinking we had intentionally failed to give the gentlemen the proper courtesy due Governor of the state of Georgia, and that our article was intended for him took occasion to refer to the SNOBAL before introducing the speaker.

Governor Northern in a speech of two hours plead for the cause of democracy, and as a democrat said, "showed up his side of the question well."

It was charitable of conservatism and did much to quiet the infurited discord, perhaps which pervades our county although no changes were made as it is too late now to turn the scale as men's minds are made up and settled.

The speech was listened to with much interest, as it was grand and reflected that honor charistic of the gentleman.

For Governor: W. J. Northern, D. 210,836; W. L. Peck, P. P., Sen. 32nd District, 96,501; W. A. Reeves, Dem. 197,836; W. F. West, P. P., Rep. 213,856; W. A. Charters, Dem. 38,484; Jos. Woodward F. P., Win. Spenser, rep. 12,000,211.

We republish the result of the election of October 1892 to show that there is no reason for the populists of Lumpkin county to be alarmed.

At that time the democrats had a candidate for Governor that they were not ashamed of, one that was clear of schemes and corruption. He only got a majority over his popular opponent in this county of 150 votes—16 did not vote for governor.

West the candidate for the Senate, was not known to exceeding 100 men in the county and he was only beaten 128 votes in Lumpkin by Judge Reeves who was as well known all over the county.

In the legislative race every republican voted for Mr. Charters, the democratic candidate, except 142, that went for Mr. Spenser, a republican.

Now how is it? Both the present candidates for the senate live in the county and are very popular.

Out of the 300 republicans many of them are said to be for the populists. In the legislative race there are three democrats and one populist. Do you see?

The Governor Speaks at Dahlonega.

A Card From W. P. Price.

ED. SIGNALS—

Your last issue contains a very silly item about my connection with the appointment of Mr. G. W. Walker, Sr., as one of our jury referees. I learn that Mr. Walker had been on Saturday last in Dahlonega, at the county house, in presence of several citizens pronounced the report as false.

Let me once for all make this simple announcement: I never suggested to Judge Wellborn, nor to any other Judge at any time the propriety of appointing any person on the Board of Jury Referees. Nor have I ever been consulted by any person in regard to their appointment. It is equally true that I never suggested a name or names of citizens to any member of the present or any other Board to be selected as Jurymen—either grand or petit; nor agreed to use my influence in having any one retained on the Board. Being an officer of the Court myself I have always refrained from any interference whatever with the matter.

W. P. Price.

The Supreme Court Judges.

Elsewhere we publish an article by request of the bar association, showing the necessity, its members say, of two more Supreme Court judges. It's true that the labor of the judges of the supreme court has increased, but yet it doesn't consume near all their time. They get to spend several months during the year at watering places and pleasure resorts. They have stenographers who do all the writing and have only to sit and hear the arguments.

You men who have from eight to ten children to support and have to labor all the year round in the mines from six to six, only get eighty cents per day, same as a young man who has not even a wife to support. So it is with the farmer.

Judge Hall, a former member of the Supreme Court, said only a few years ago that they didn't need an increase and we are satisfied he knew what he was talking about when he was acting at the time.

All this sympathetic talk is not to relieve the present judges particularly but is for the purpose of giving some hungry office seekers a fat job. So vote against it.

A Card From W. B. Townsend.

Mr. G. W. Walker tells me that he did not say to any one that "Col. Price and Capt. Williams promised to help him to get the re-appointment as one of the jury referees," and that the report is untrue.

Mr. J. W. Walker, the tax collector, is my informant. He says last week and still states that Mr. W. did have such a conversation with him. So the two Mr. Walkers have it between them.

JOE AND JOHN SMITH.

Atkinson's Record.

"An Atkinson man," who posts his letter in Griffin, asks us how we afford to support Mr. Atkinson after he is nominated if he is the man we have described him to be?

We ask our correspondent how he can afford to support Mr. Atkinson in preference to General Evans if he is what his record proves him to be? One question is as fair as the other and both are easily answered.

If the democratic party nominates Mr. Atkinson in spite of the method that he has introduced into Georgia politics it will impart to his career as a public man a dignity and an importance that it does not now possess, and we shall feel warranted in surrendering our objections to the jugglery, the bungling and the bulldozing and domineering methods that have thus far marked his efforts to win popular approval in this state.

But we hope and believe that the day is not far distant when the honest and incorruptible democrats of Georgia can be either persuaded or bulldozed into endorsing the methods that have given Mr. Atkinson a majority of the votes that he now boasts of. We do not believe that the temper of the people will admit of any such doubtful experiment this year.

The fact that there has been no popular protest against the frauds and outrages on the people's rights that have been committed in a number of the counties possesses a sufficient influence that the party cannot afford to ignore.

The fact that through the efforts of many friends throughout the state I have been authorized to announce the name of M. G. Boyd, of Lumpkin county, as a candidate for the Senate from the 32nd senatorial district of Georgia, as the nominee of the people's party.

We are authorized to announce the name of V. A. Higgins as a candidate for the Senate from the 32nd senatorial district of Georgia, as the nominee of the people's party.

Give me your signature, W. P. Jackson.

Mr. ENDOR:

There is a false report being circulated against me which I wish to brand as such through the columns of your valuable paper.

Soon after Thomas Postel made his speech two years ago, and stated that if he voted for such men as some of the leaders of the democratic party he would go to hell, myself, Austin Jones and Tom Turner were together at Jones' Creek.

The conversation got up, and I said it was wrong to vote for corrupt men in any party when we knew it to be a fact, which applied to all parties.

As for me saying that the republican party would go to hell I positively did not. Such a thought never entered my mind. I have voted for republicans several times.

At the time Postel made his speech I said he was too rough on the republican party, and while the democrats have tried to lay the blame all on the republican party I have said publicly that the record showed that the democratic party was to blame in part.
